ance Brokers are Going to Fight. A meeting of the fire insurance brokers of this city was held on Saturday night to see what steps could be taken to test the constitu ionality of the new insurance law, which went law in existence since 1872 which provided that any man who acted as agent or solicited insurance for any company not duly represented in the State of New York should be liable to a fine of $500 for each policy he procured. The In-surance Department, finding that no conviclaw, and urged by the insurance companies provides that outside insurance companies dition that they invest a certain amount of their assets in Government bonds or State or first-class corporation securities in the State their assets in Government bonds or State or first-class corporation securities in the State. Many outside companies can invest their money to so much better advantage at home that the loss of interest will bar their entering the State.

The peculiar feature of the law, however, lies in the part which prevents not only any person from soliciting insurance for outside companies, but also persons holding property here from insuring this property in companies outside the State. The result is, it is said, that the large firms and corporations in this State cannot obtain sufficient insurances as the capital of all the insurance companies in the State is not anough to insure much more than half of what it is wanted to insure.

Beecher & Benedict, fire insurance brokers at 145 Broadway, said yesterday: The action of the insurance brokers on Saturday night cannot be made public at present. But you can say that they have the backing of the whole business community. The law is unconstitutional, and we will prove it. Large business firms in this city, such as H. H. Claffin & Co., Mills & Gibb, and Lord & Taylor, cannot get half the insurance they want in this State, and yet are debarred from going outside. At the samo time their competitors in other States—as Jordan, Marsh & Co. of Beston, and Marshall, Field & Co., of Chicago—an get all they want. New York merchants will fight against this. In fact, they have a termed a sort of insurance company among themselves, called the Individual Underwriters. They have to keep half their stock at warehouses, because if the banks heard that their stock on land was only half insured they would get frightened. At the meeting on Saturday night a committee of three was appointed of whom Mr. Benedict of this firm is one, and Mr. Kennedy of Reed & Kennedy is another. Take the insurance companies of New Orleans or Memphis. Their capital is mostly invested in cotton or sugar, and their naper may be said to be gilt edged. Of course the investment pays high premiums and they won't come here u

Mr. Walsh Yanks Out the Tembs Prisoner in the Most Graceful Way.

Fatty Walsh of the Sixth ward, with his side partner, Jerry Hartigan of Chatham square, swung into the Tombs Court late yesterday afternoon and asked Justice White's clerk, John Coman, why Joseph Yates of 146 Cherry street and John Leary of 2,333 Third Svenue had been locked up. "There were a half dozen of them raising a racket up in Pell street last night," Coman replied, handing over the complaints to Walsh.

This is terrible, Mr. Coman." Walsh said, adjusting his glasses. "These fellows'll soon run the town. They ought to be in a cell all their lives, Just think of it, Mr. Hartigan.
They destroyed windows and smashed Chinamen's signs. The thing ought to be stopped."

Mr. Walsh stepped back for a moment to pender over the wickedness of the world. Then be said:

"The friends of Yates and Leary have been around to talk with me. Make out their discharges, Mr. Coman, and hand them up to his Honor to sign. It'il be all right."

Justice Andy White signed thom, and handed them over to Mr. Walsh. Mr. Walsh went to look for Mr. Hartigan. He found him at the big desk in Justice White's private room, reading the court Bible. He went out with Walsh to Warden Finn to get his prisoners.

"That's six fellows fatty got out to-day," a prison keeper said, as the two young prisoners. oper said, as the two young prisoners

A suit was begun in the United States Court yesterday by William Liddell of Donalcony, near Bel-fast, Ireland, against Henry M. Dodge & Samuel Houson, a firm of Custom House brokers and Richard D Jackson, a Custom House attorney, to recover $7,000, which the plaintiff says he paid on false representaons. The plaintiff is a consignor of lineus to this city A consignment arrived on Sept. 13, 1883, for his age: Watson & Girdwood of 45 Leonard street. On reap-praisement it was advanced in value ten per cent., with praisement it was advanced in value ten per cent, with twenty per cent, added as a penalty. On subsequent consignments Watson & Girdwood, it is alleged, were induced by their brokers, Dedge & Houston, not to demand reappraisements, but to add additional duties to the invoices. The agents were took that their invoices would pass all right a look that their House if they put on the additional duties. The was also informed that the Treasury agents intended to overhaul their old entries, with a view of detecting undervaluations and bringing suits for penaltics. Afterfurnishing this statement, the brokers, it is alleged introduced to the agents Attorney Jackson, who they said knew the Custom House officers, and would arrange matters satisfactority. Moneys were subsequently paid to Jackson. After a number of invoices had been raised in value by the agents and the difference in duties paid, they asked for a reappraisement on a certain invoice, and when it was made the value of the goods originally given was sustained. The plaintiff Liddell charges that the representations alleged to have been made by the defendants were false, and that because of them there was paid on his account $6,890, which should not have been paid. Judge Brown issued a capins for the brokers and the Mtorney, who appeared and gave ball jointly in $7 0.0.

Justice to Allan L. Mc Dermott.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE SUN-Sir: The statement of a correspondent that Allan L. McDermott of Jersey City " holds six offices, and is looking for a seventh," is untrue. He is Judge of the Second District Court, a Commissioner of Railroads, and President of the Board of Finance and Taxation of Jersey City. These are all. All the salary he receives from these three offices would not compensate him for his labor as Presi-dent of the Board of Finance and Taxation. He spent his days and nights last winter at Trenton in urging bills for the relief of Jersey City and saved the city from bankruptcy, as the people well know. He reduced the taxes for the first time in many years, and increased the school teachers' salaries. They had been working to starvation wages. The property owners of the city in-sist on his staying on the Board, although he would M. W. HAZELTINE.

Sam Lavner Bought the Pistel. It has been discovered that Sam Lavner, whose body was found at Little Falls, N. J., and who is supposed to have been murdered, bought the pistol that was found in the tree near the body at George Myer's was found in the tree near the body at George Myers's hardware store in Faterson three weeks ago. The Chief of Police has from the start held to the theory that it was suitede and not a murder, and to satisfy himself described and have been suited as a more than the hardware stores. Mr. Myers described and the property of the store. It would not work, and the purchase product he store. It would not work, and the purchase that it would come down closer on the cartridge. The pistol with which Lavner was shot was found to be filled as Mr. Myers described. It is ow believed by many that Lavner committed suicide. At all events, he was killed by the pistol that he bought at Mr. Myers store three weeks ago. His body was horied by the l'aterson Israelites in their cometery on Sunday.

Medical.

IT IS NOT

A cure-all, but as a tonic and health renewer, and for blood and skin diseases and troubles dependent on impure or impoverished blood, Swift's Specific is without a rival. " My baby, six months old, broke out with some kind of skin humor, and, after being treated five months by my family physician, was given up to die. The druggist recommended Swift's Specific, and the result was as gratifying as it was miraculous. My child soon got well, all traces of the disease are gone, and he is as fat as a J. J. KIRKLAND. Minden, Rusk county, Texas.

"I used Swift's Specific on my little daughter, who was afflicted with some blood poison which had resisted all sorts of treatment. The Specific relieved her permanently, and I shall use it in my practice."

GRATEFUL-COMFORTING. EPPS'S COCOA. BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digration and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well we lected Gocca. Mr. Eppa has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save at many heavy doctors bills. It is by the judicious used such articles of dist that a constitution may be radioally built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subite maissides are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping outselves well fortlined with pure blood and a projectly marshed frame." Civil Service Gazette.
